On February 27, 1991, Ruth Dillow was at home in Chanuk, Kansas when the phone rang.

It was bad news from the Pentagon.

Her son, Private First Class Clayton Carpenter, had stepped on a landmine in the Persian Gulf War and was dead. It was an awful, sickening reality to learn that her son would never come home again.

Three days later, Ruth received another phone call.

The voice on the other end said "Mom, I'm alive!" Ruth said that at first she could not believe it was the voice of her 23-year old son, over whom she had mourned for nearly three days. Ruth said, "I jumped up and down. I was so overjoyed! You just don't know how much. Then after I jumped awhile, I started telling every day - Clayton was alive! Family, friends, strangers, co-workers, people at the grocery store, and at gas stations."

It seems far fetched, but it's a true story.

One presumed to be dead was really alive, and oh, the joy that mom felt when she heard the voice of her son again.

Jesus presumed dead, is alive! The one who was dead, lives, and offers us hope, not only for this life but eternity!

What should we do?

Go and tell others! Jesus is alive!

"I tell you the truth,
anyone who believes has eternal life.
Yes, I am the bread of life!"

Jesus recorded in John 6:47-48 (NLT)

"Bread of Life?
Jesus lived up to the title.
But an unopened loaf
does a person no good.
Have you received the bread?
Have you received God's forgiveness?"

A Word About the Gospel of John

This morning our study of John's good news about Jesus brings us to chapter 6, verse 22. Remember, John is writing to tell us WHO JESUS IS! One of the amazing ways we learn more about Jesus is to listen and learn about him.

In John's account of Jesus, John gives us seven I AM statements of Jesus. Today we come to our first. Pay careful attention and study what Jesus said about Himself.

1. I am the bread of life. - 6:35
2. I am the light of the world. - 8:12
3. I am the door for the sheep. - 10:7
4. I am the good shepherd. - 10:11
5. I am the resurrection and the life. - 11:25-26
6. I am the way, the truth and the life. - 14:6
7. I am the vine. - 15:5

Each of these I AM statements from Jesus reveal so many truths about WHO JESUS IS!

Thoughts from a portion of our text.

"But don't be so concerned about perishable things like food. Spend your energy seeking the eternal life that the Son of Man can give you. For God the Father has given me the seal of his approval."

John 6:27 (NLT)

We should seek Jesus first, and trust that our complete satisfaction comes through seeking Him and obeying His Word. Our faith is based completely upon the grace of God. There is nothing we can do or accomplish that could make us right with God. It is only through grace found in Jesus. When we understand the truths about grace and the wonderful mercy of God, the love of God will flow out of our lives, and that love will result in our loving each other. Jesus came into the world to save us, and to change us, and to place His desires into our hearts. Spend our energy seeking the eternal things that only Jesus can give.
